New to exporting & importing? Already experienced but wish you knew more?

Once you've identified your global business partners you need to deliver on your promises. You can outsource some trade activities, but you can't outsource the financial or legal responsibilities. Your long-term global business success depends on you finding, developing and retaining talent in trade compliance and international logistics.

Engage JD Goodrich & Associates for an Onsite Seminar

Save out of office travel time and expenses. Affordably instruct large groups of employees. Maintain privacy and confidentiality while addressing issues unique to your company with onsite international trade instruction.

Tailor Meetings for Your Team

Onsite or webinar, one hour or one week, JD Goodrich & Assoc. will adapt its delivery to meet your needs.

Int'l Trade Staff Awareness

Address needs of front-line staff managing daily trade activities through in-depth instruction.

Skills Building Workshops

Build skill set with hands-on exercises using examples unique to your company.

Corporate-Wide Awareness

Raise awareness of opportunities and trade issues across corporate functions.

Executive Briefing

Highlight trade risks and explore strategies and opportunities for enhancing the bottom line.

Vendor Collaboration

Work with suppliers and gain their support for your international trade initiatives.

Customizable Trade Seminars
